

WAS MCLOSKEY HIT?

He Says Alderman Rogers Gave Him a Bad Pain in the Neck.

"Big" John Morris Says He "Didn't See No Blow Struck."

Fifteenth District Politicians Say It Was Only a Wordy War.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

McLoskey says he was hit. Alderman Rogers says he did not. "Big" John Morris says he didn't see no blow struck. The Fifteenth District politicians say it was only a wordy war.

YOUNG DIETRICH'S ARREST.

Mr. Lieb Changes Him with Malicious Mischief.

The Young Man Says He Was Trying to Get Security on a Note.

W. O. Dietrich, of 75 South Eighth street, Williamsburg, a respectable appearing man, was arrested early this morning charged with malicious mischief by Th. Lieb, President of the Lieb Manufacturing Company, 629 and 641 Kent avenue.

The complainant stated that at 7.30 o'clock he found the young fellow and an accomplice in the act of breaking in a door leading to the power room.

The prisoner, however, told a story which put an entirely different color on the affair. He is in the employ of J. S. and C. P. Simpson, electricians in mill power, at 20 to 30 Third street, and produced a letter authorizing him to demand additional security on a note for $2,000, held against Lieb. His employers own the building and furnish the power.

Last evening Dietrich went to a station avenue, the residence of the complainant, for the purpose of demanding the security, and not getting it went early this morning to the power room. He said he secured a key, and proceeded to break in the door for the purpose of stopping the power unless the additional security was forthcoming.

He was arrested by a patrolman, who was furnished with the case. Considerable excitement is expected to follow, as both parties are very bitter in their feud.

Identified as Lizzie Dunne. The woman found dead in the cellar of the tenement at 54 Fourth street, Brooklyn, as told in yesterday's Evening World, has been identified as Lizzie Dunne, thirty-five years old, who had no home.

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Hoyt. A solemn mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Agnes' Catholic church, sackcloth and wailing, this morning for the repose of the soul of Mrs. M. W. Hoyt, who died a year ago. Mrs. Hoyt donated an altar cloth for the church five years ago, and the fact that she was the donor was not made known until last Sunday.

Died of Delirium Tremens. Richard Kenney, a lodger at the Cleveland house, Park Row, New York, was removed to the Brooklyn Hospital from Mediterranean street, last night, after a long delirium tremens. He died at 4 o'clock this morning.

Injured by a Falling Plank. Mrs. Hiram J. Hawkins, of 580 Washington avenue, Brooklyn, today suffering from the effects of the fall of a plank, yesterday afternoon a plank slipped from some tangle at the top of the building and knocked the woman down.

Arrested for Beating His Mother. Bridget Peters, of 51 Carroll street, complained in the Butcher Court this morning that her son, Peter, aged twenty-two, beats her continually and never contributed towards her support. Peter was locked up for a week for intoxication, when he will be sentenced on the charge.

HAD HIS WIFE COMMITTED. A Brooklyn Man Complains that His Home Has Been Broken Up. Mary Sloughbach, aged thirty, wife of William Sloughbach, of 45 Columbia place, Brooklyn, was sent to the House of the Good Shepherd by Justice Walsin in the Butcher Court this morning.

His wife, who was the complainant, and he said that his wife not only spent all the money he earned for drink, but had pawned everything, even to their little daughter's clothes, to procure liquor. He said that his wife was incompetent to take care of the family and that he was obliged to put it in some private institution and pay for it.

The Judge was giving Mrs. Sloughbach a severe lecture, her little daughter, Annie, not yet four years old, was dancing around the floor singing at the top of her voice.

BROKE A SAILOR'S LEG. Then the Crowd Carried Sailer Aboard His Vessel. Edward Lamey, aged twenty-eight, of 19 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, was held in $1,000 bail in the Butcher Court this morning to await the result of injuries he is alleged to have last night inflicted upon James Sailer, a sailor on the schooner Sailer Parker.

Sailer stopped in Joseph Greco's saloon, at 37 Atlantic avenue, where he met a crowd of whom Lamey seemed to be the leader. After having a number of drinks, for which Sailer paid, an altercation arose and Lamey struck Sailer and threw him on the floor.

Sailer did not get up and the game became frightened and got a push cart and took him down to the boat. About 10 o'clock the captain of the vessel sent for the Madison street police and they found that Sailer's leg was broken and that he was otherwise injured.

VALUABLE MINERALS ON VIEW. Collection on Exhibition by the Brooklyn Arts and Sciences Institute. A collection of minerals arranged by the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences was opened to the public at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the rooms of the Art Association, 174 Montague street, Brooklyn.

The exhibition is made up chiefly from the private collection of members of the institute. It will remain open until 10 o'clock this evening.

Mrs. Cryder May Amend. Justice Andrews, of the Supreme Court Chambers, today decided to allow Mrs. Helen Chauncey Cryder, wife of William Wetmore Cryder, to put in her new defense to the charges brought against her by the Madison Square Black. She says her husband signed her name to notes without authority.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

BROOKLYN NEWS IN BRIEF.

Terms Chronoles Drawn from Notebook and Docket.

Paragraphs That Photograph the History of the Day.

Dr. Jones's Victim May Still Die. The examination of Dr. William T. Jones who shot Miss Sarah Douglas at 45 Williams street, Brooklyn, was adjourned until Wednesday next in the Adams street court this morning. Detective Kelly informing Justice Wain that there is still a possibility that the wound will prove fatal.

Identified as Lizzie Dunne. The woman found dead in the cellar of the tenement at 54 Fourth street, Brooklyn, as told in yesterday's Evening World, has been identified as Lizzie Dunne, thirty-five years old, who had no home.

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Hoyt. A solemn mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Agnes' Catholic church, sackcloth and wailing, this morning for the repose of the soul of Mrs. M. W. Hoyt, who died a year ago. Mrs. Hoyt donated an altar cloth for the church five years ago, and the fact that she was the donor was not made known until last Sunday.

Died of Delirium Tremens. Richard Kenney, a lodger at the Cleveland house, Park Row, New York, was removed to the Brooklyn Hospital from Mediterranean street, last night, after a long delirium tremens. He died at 4 o'clock this morning.

Injured by a Falling Plank. Mrs. Hiram J. Hawkins, of 580 Washington avenue, Brooklyn, today suffering from the effects of the fall of a plank, yesterday afternoon a plank slipped from some tangle at the top of the building and knocked the woman down.

Arrested for Beating His Mother. Bridget Peters, of 51 Carroll street, complained in the Butcher Court this morning that her son, Peter, aged twenty-two, beats her continually and never contributed towards her support. Peter was locked up for a week for intoxication, when he will be sentenced on the charge.

HAD HIS WIFE COMMITTED. A Brooklyn Man Complains that His Home Has Been Broken Up. Mary Sloughbach, aged thirty, wife of William Sloughbach, of 45 Columbia place, Brooklyn, was sent to the House of the Good Shepherd by Justice Walsin in the Butcher Court this morning.

His wife, who was the complainant, and he said that his wife not only spent all the money he earned for drink, but had pawned everything, even to their little daughter's clothes, to procure liquor. He said that his wife was incompetent to take care of the family and that he was obliged to put it in some private institution and pay for it.

The Judge was giving Mrs. Sloughbach a severe lecture, her little daughter, Annie, not yet four years old, was dancing around the floor singing at the top of her voice.

BROKE A SAILOR'S LEG. Then the Crowd Carried Sailer Aboard His Vessel. Edward Lamey, aged twenty-eight, of 19 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, was held in $1,000 bail in the Butcher Court this morning to await the result of injuries he is alleged to have last night inflicted upon James Sailer, a sailor on the schooner Sailer Parker.

Sailer stopped in Joseph Greco's saloon, at 37 Atlantic avenue, where he met a crowd of whom Lamey seemed to be the leader. After having a number of drinks, for which Sailer paid, an altercation arose and Lamey struck Sailer and threw him on the floor.

Sailer did not get up and the game became frightened and got a push cart and took him down to the boat. About 10 o'clock the captain of the vessel sent for the Madison street police and they found that Sailer's leg was broken and that he was otherwise injured.

VALUABLE MINERALS ON VIEW. Collection on Exhibition by the Brooklyn Arts and Sciences Institute. A collection of minerals arranged by the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences was opened to the public at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the rooms of the Art Association, 174 Montague street, Brooklyn.

The exhibition is made up chiefly from the private collection of members of the institute. It will remain open until 10 o'clock this evening.

Mrs. Cryder May Amend. Justice Andrews, of the Supreme Court Chambers, today decided to allow Mrs. Helen Chauncey Cryder, wife of William Wetmore Cryder, to put in her new defense to the charges brought against her by the Madison Square Black. She says her husband signed her name to notes without authority.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

The prisoners were all under seventeen years of age. They were arrested on the complaint of a woman who had been beaten by the marines. The police and thirteen members of the Club were taken into custody.

His Nose Broken by Marines. Portsmouth (N. H.) Policeman May Die from His Injuries. Portsmouth, Nov. 17.—While attempting to arrest four United States marines last night Policeman Hennessy had his nose broken and received serious injuries about the head.

DID CLEVELAND SAY DAM?

His Reported Emphatic Defi to Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan.

Mr. Croker Denies Positively that Such Language Was Used.

If Mr. Thomas G. Sheehan has quoted Cleveland correctly, and what makes it all the more interesting is that these emphatic expressions were said to have been addressed to Lieut.-Gov. William F. Sheehan in the presence of other equally distinguished Democrats, W. C. Whitney, Richard Croker, Edward Murphy, Jr., and Don M. Dickinson.

The occasion was the dinner at the Victoria hotel, last night, at which Mr. Sheehan related to the guests of the club, among whom were several ladies, this hitherto unpublished story of the late campaign.

"This is what he said," Mr. Sheehan related to the guests of the club, among whom were several ladies, this hitherto unpublished story of the late campaign.

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

"I was sitting at the table with Mr. Sheehan, and he was talking to me about the late campaign. He said that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign, and that he had been talking to Mr. Croker about the late campaign."

Bloomingdale's

Great Advance

Book Sale.

Comprising 25,000 Standard and Miscellaneous Works. Not more than three to one customer.

7,000 SETS AS FOLLOWS:

Dickens, 15 vols., published at $3.49

Thackeray, 10 vols., published at 2.47

Lyall, 6 vols., published at 1.39

Lamb, 2 vols., published at .47

Cooper's Leather Stocking Tales, .98

Ellet, 4 vols., published at 1.37

Emerson, 2 vols., published at .47

Hughes, 2 vols., published at .47

Sue, 2 vols., published at .47

Macaulay's England, 5 vols., published at .47

Shakespeare, 8 vols., published at 6.00

Irving, 6 vols., published at 1.19

Longfellow's Works, 2 vols., published at .79

Dumas, 8 vols., published at 1.70

Gibson's Roman, 6 vols., published at .98

Waverley Novels, 12 vols., published at 3.69

Same, half Russian, published at 6.9